THE CHAMELEON TRAP

When you consistently adapt to fit in... you eventually forget what your true color is.

Mission • Calm • Consistency • Earn Your Name

Consistency

A chameleon changes its color to survive.
People often do the same thing.

Consistency

Different people.

Different expectations.

Different masks.

Consistency

At work, we become one person.

At home, another.

With friends, another.

Online, someone else entirely.

Consistency

Adaptability is a strength.

Abandoning your identity is not.

Consistency

If you change for every room you enter...

Who are you when the room is empty?

Consistency

Your mission should determine your decisions.

Not the people standing in front of you.

Consistency

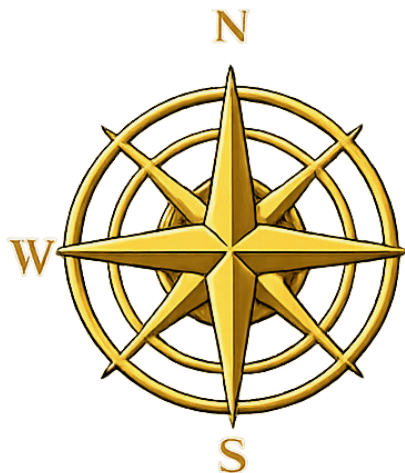

Mission.

Calm.

Consistency.

Earn your name.

See What Others Miss.
