

Mission

Most people build a Vision Board.

Few people build Awareness.

Mission

We collect pictures
of what we think we want.

- Cars
- House
- Future Partner

Mission

VISION BOARD

(What you see)

VS

AWARENESS

(What you feel)

Feel your vision board, don't memorize it.

Your eyes can deceive you. Your heart will not.

THE GLASS IS FULL SYSTEM

See What Others Miss.

Mission

What happens if the house, the car, the future partner, doesnt match the picture?

We become so focused on the picture...

that we walk right past the
what actually fits us best.

Because we trusted our eyes...
instead of our hearts.

Mission

Instead, turn your vision board
into a feeling board

Your dream house may be smaller or bigger

Your partner maybe be brunette not blonde

Mission

Awareness is your internal compass.

It points toward your mission.
